

CONTENT

S.No.	Description	Page No.
1.	PREFACE	i-ii
2.	MUKTIKA UPANISHAD	1-44

Shanti Mantra

Chapter I : Vedanta philosophy – longing for liberation – Vedanta the culmination of the Vedas – types of liberation – Kaivalya Mukti through Upanishadic Knowledge – the 108 Upanishads – qualifications for Upanishadic knowledge – invocation of Shanti Mantras.

Chapter-II : Jivan Mukti & Videha Mukti – necessity of personal effort – triple means for Jivan Mukti – effacement of latent impressions – dissolution of the mind – methods of mind control – meditation and Samadhi – desire conceals the real nature – detachment and desirelessness.

3.	ADHYATMA UPANISHAD	45-70
----	--------------------	-------

Shanti Mantra – repudiation of super-imposition – rejection of non-self and reflection on the Self – effacement of innate impulses – exposition on non-dual Self – result of Self-knowledge – method of spiritual knowledge – steadfast wisdom and liberation in-life – refutation of hypothesis of Prarabdha Karma – Nature of Brahman – direct experiential knowledge – line of traditional teachers of this knowledge.

4.	SARASVATI RAHASYOPANISHAD	71- 108
----	---------------------------	---------

Introduction – Shanti Mantra – ten Mantras of Goddess Sarasvati – prayer for invoking the Goddess

– Purusha and Prakriti – the dual aspects of the Goddess - the Goddess is Iswara due to Maya – dual nature of Maya – prescription of Samadhi for realisation of non-duality – realisation of the supreme Self.

5. AMRITABINDU UPANISHAD 109-122

Introduction – Shanti Mantra – The mind: cause of bondage and liberation – Yoga: prescriptions for Mano-Nirodha – Jnana: Identity of the Self and Brahman – oneness of Atman – Intuitive knowledge and absolute non-duality.

6. NIRALAMBA UPANISHAD 123-146

Shanti Mantra – initiation under the divine preceptor – enquiry for destroying ignorance – deliberation on Brahman – Iswara: the inner ruler – deliberation on the nature of the Jiva – Prakriti: the imperceptible primordial matter – nature of Paramatma – repudiation of caste – nature of Karma and Akarma – elucidation of Jnana – nature of Ajnana – nature of happiness – description of heaven and hell – bondage and liberation – causes of bondages – liberation through discrimination – teacher and disciple – learned and ignorant person – demonic and pure penance – the supreme abode – rule of acceptance and non-acceptance – characteristics a Paramhansa Sannyasin.

7. MAITREYA UPANISHAD 147-176

Shanti Mantra

Chapter-I: Quest for Self-knowledge – Dispassion: the basic qualification – necessity of tranquil mind for Self-knowledge – philosophy of the Self – Necessity of renunciation of worldly life.

Chapter-II: Lord Siva's advice to Sage Maitreya – Process of Self-purification – impurities of body and its cleanliness – prescriptions for an ascetic – real renunciation – prescriptions for life of an ascetic order.

Chapter-III: Direct Experiences of sage Maitreya.

8. KAIVALYA UPANISHAD 177- 202

Introduction – Shanti Mantra – renunciation of triple means prescribed in the Vedas – the path of meditation – formless meditation – formful meditation – Kaivalya Mukti is through self-knowledge alone – prescription of Pranava Upasana – self-investigation through four states of consciousness – realisation of the non-dual Self.

9. NIRVANA UPANISHAD 203-234

Shanti Mantra

Characteristics of a Paramhansa – Brahma Vidya delineated – pathways to Brahman – prescription of Yoga for Nirvikalpa Samadhi – prescription of a life of a Parivrajaka – philosophy of Self-realisation – Self realised soul as Avadhuta.