

CONTENTS

Foreword	iii
Preface	v
Introduction	x
1. Roots, Firm and Deep	1-7
- The Vedic literature
2. Branches, Varied and Strong,	8-15
- Upa-Vedas and Vedangas
3. Flowers, Fragrant and Beautiful,	16-25
- the Upanishads
4. Leaves, evergreen and ever fresh,	26-36
- Itihasa- Purana
5. The systems of Indian Philosophy	37-48
6. The Kashmir Shaiva Philosophy	49-54
7. Shiva, the Multi-faceted Lord	55-61
8. From Grief to Renunciation	62-70
9. Transformation of Arjuna	71-84
10. The Steadfast and the Loved one	85-89
11. Yoga in the Bhagwad Geeta	90-101
12. Yajna in the Geeta	102-108
13. The concept of Punar-Janma in the Geeta	109-116

14. Divinity, the Geeta way	117-132
15. Ahankara, the Notion of Ego	133-141
16. Use of Similes in the Geeta	142-149
17. Divinity that makes Godman of a man	150-155
18. Values, Views and Virtues	156-165
19. Divine Majesty and Splendour	166-174
20. Liberation	175-181
21. The Om	182-189
22. Pledges and Promises	190-200
23. Chains, Sets and Series	201-208
24. When the gods faltered	209-213
25. Fruits of Fearlessness	214-218
26. Curiosity of Sages	219-223
27. Light is Light, after all	224-228
28. Bibliography	229-232
29. Glossary of Sanskrit words	233-236